This matter has been under advisement and the Court has considered and reviewed the record of the proceedings from the trial Court, exhibits made of record and the Memoranda submitted.

The only issue raised by the Appellant concerns the sufficiency of the evidence to warrant the conviction and finding of responsibility. When reviewing the sufficiency of the evidence, an appellate court must not re-weigh the evidence to determine if it would reach the same conclusion as the original trier of fact.¹ All evidence will be viewed in a light most favorable to sustaining a conviction and all reasonable inferences will be resolved against the Defendant.² If conflicts in evidence exist, the appellate court must resolve such conflicts in favor of sustaining the verdict and against the Defendant.³ An appellate court shall afford great weight to the trial court's assessment of witnesses' credibility and should not reverse the trial court's weighing of evidence absent clear error.⁴ When the sufficiency of evidence to support a judgment is questioned on appeal, an Appellate Court will examine the record only to determine whether substantial evidence exists to support the action of the lower court.⁵ The Arizona Supreme Court has explained in State v. Tison⁶ that "substantial evidence" means:

More than a scintilla and is such proof as a reasonable mind would employ to support the conclusion reached. It is of a character which would convince an unprejudiced thinking mind of the truth of the fact to which the evidence is directed. If reasonable men may fairly differ as to whether certain evidence establishes a fact in issue, then such evidence must be considered as substantial.⁷

This Court finds that the trial court's determination was not clearly erroneous and was supported by substantial evidence.

IT IS ORDERED affirming the judgment of responsibility and sanctions imposed.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED remanding this matter back to the Mesa City Court for further proceedings.
